

Fish Culture Section

The Fish Culture Section of the American Fisheries Society is a professional association concerned with advancing the science of rearing aquatic organisms for conservation, recreation, food and ornamental use. The Section disseminates information about fish culture to professionals and the general public, and strives to support and enhance the fish culture programs of private, governmental, and international entities.

Come Join US!

Membership Categories

General Members are members of the American Fisheries Society (AFS), pay $2 Section dues, are entitled to full voting privileges, and can hold office in the Section. AFS dues vary depending on education and employment situations. Enroll online at www.fisheries.org and make sure to include membership in the Fish Culture Section.

Affiliate Members are individual or institutions who are not members of the AFS, pay dues of $50 (which includes a subscription to the North American Journal of Aquaculture), but cannot vote, hold office or serve as committee chairs.

For Affiliate Membership send $50 dues and contact information to:

Adam Fuller (Fish Culture Section Secretary/Treasure)
Juneau Center, School of Fisheries and Ocean Sciences
University of Alaska, Fairbanks
11120 Glacier Highway
Juneau, AK 99801

Questions: Contact Michael Barnes, Fish Culture Section President, (605) 642-6920 or mike.barnes@state.sd.us.